

Enterprise-Wide Translation Contract Unites Caremark Rx and Precision Language Services

June 6, 2006, Norbrook, IL: Precision Language Services, Lakeville, MN, has teamed with Caremark Rx Inc, Nashville, TN, to translate health documents for Caremark's Disease Management division. As a result of an on-going relationship developed over 18 months, Precision Language Services won the opportunity to provide enterprise-wide translation services needed for technical documents used by Caremark's Disease Management group. Because of their familiarity with legal issues surrounding the translation industry, Precision Language Services was given the unique opportunity to work with Caremark, developing contractual language to standardize language service contracts.

'We are very pleased to be working with Precision Language Services' said Reuben Hamilton, Supplier Diversity Manager at Caremark. 'Caremark has a long history of advocacy for diverse suppliers. Precision Language Services, as a WBENC certified firm, has the expertise and experience Caremark seeks in it's diverse suppliers. We look forward to a long relationship that is beneficial to all.'

About Precision Language Services:

Precision Language Services was founded in 1993 to offer translation and interpretation to clients first locally, then across the nation. Today the company provides document and website translation and localization as well as on-site and telephonic interpretation for 100 languages to clients across the United States and Europe. Clients range from small companies just breaking into the overseas market to international Fortune 500 companies such as 3M, Cendant, Ecolab, General Mills, and Wal-Mart, and include computer firms, insurance companies, government agencies, utility companies, many law firms, electronics manufacturers, and private citizens. Precision Language Services is WBENC, MN CERT certified and holds current registry with CCR, SBA and the Ariba Supplier Network.
